Finca Hispana Garnacha/Carignan/Syrah Roble, 2013 DO Monsant

Type of Wine: Red Wine

Appellation of Origin: DO Monsant

Winery: Celler Unio, Reus

Varietal: 40% Garnacha, 40% Carignan, 20% Syrah.

Vines are between 30-60 years old.

Terrain: Surrounded by mountains, the area features soils rich in slate and granite. The rainfall is between 20 and 25 inches per year, but because of the proximity to the mediterranean, a lot of additional moisture comes to the plants from the sea. Altitude also contributes, with big diurnal changes in temperature.

Harvest: Hand picked and selected twice: initially in the vineyard, with a second selection on receipt at the winery.

Ageing: 6 months of in French and American oak.

Bottling: Bottled on the property.

Serving Temperature: Between 61° and 65° F

Alcohol Content: 13.5%

About the producer:

Eugènia Guasch López is a young winemaker from one of the most dramatic wine growing regions in northwest Spain. Eugènia takes advantage of the region's natural beauty, hiking through the mountains whenever she can.

Tasting Notes:

Color: Garnet, lively and bright.

Nose: Subtle, but pleasing. The nose does not over promise.

Palate: A bright, lively and fruity wine that will pair perfectly with grilled chicken or pork, but go equally well with pasta and pizza. This wine has a lovely long finish, beautifully made and understated.

Format: 750ml (case of 12 bottles)

Ratings:

87 points, BEST BUY! Wine Spectator, Dec 15th, 2014

"This plump red wine offers cherry, fresh herbs, smoke and light graphite notes that mingle over light tannins. Juicy and racy, with citrus and chocolate details on the finish." T.M.

88 points, BEST BUY!, Wine Enthusiast, June 2015

"Jammy, gritty berry aromas set up a rubbery, full-force palate that doesn't tread lightly. Roasted, almost burnt black-fruit flavors finish firm. Overall, this feels right, while the flavors run a touch baked, rustic and stalky." M.S. (6/1/2015)
